CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT to amend section 1941-7 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to city and village mutual fire insurance companies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Policy holders deemed members, and may be assessed as circumstances may require.

SECTION 1. Section 1941-7 of the Wisconsin statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "initiation fees and dues" where they appear in line four, and inserting therefor the words "premiums and fees" so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 1941-7. Every person to whom any such policy is issued shall be deemed a member of such corporation while such policy is in force, and it shall be lawful for such corporation to require the payment of such premiums and fees, make assessments upon its members and enforce the collection thereof as circumstances may require and as may be specified in its constitution or by-laws or fixed by resolution; and the members thereof shall be subject to such other duties as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 17, 1899.
